

WHAT TO DO, WHAT TO SEE

HRÍSEY

Hrísey is a peaceful island in the middle of Eyjafjörður and is perhaps best known as a paradise for birdwatchers. The most abundant of all birds on the island is the ptarmigan.

There are around 200 inhabitants on the island, living in a trim fishing village with paved streets, tidy gardens and amazing mountain views. The island is connected to the mainland with a 15-minute ferry ride from Árskógssandur.

In Hrísey you will find 3 marked walking routes from 2.3-5.0 km. You can also visit museums, handicraft stores or the restaurants in the village.
